Hello Summer !

Hello, Summer! Just around the corner, school will be out and the weather will warm up to stay. Summer can feel like a bummer at church sometimes. So many of us are out enjoying nature and vacations that sometimes it can feel like the pews are empty. Of course, that is only true if we choose to measure our health as a church by only one metric: who shows up for worship.

There are actually three other tried and true ways to measure our health. One is our intentional faith development through small group participation. Summer has one of our biggest short term small groups: Vacation Bible School. During Vacation Bible School we welcome a small cross section of people...they have to be kids...to intentionally teach them about the Bible and God's love for them. This year we are expanding on that concept with an intentional small group for Middle School students going into grades 6-8. It will meet at the same time, but the lessons and activities will be focused special for them.

Another measure of church health is our participation in mission and service that transforms the community beyond our church doors. We will continue to provide opportunities to serve our community like monthly visits to Heart House, YES Home, and the nursing homes for singing. I know many of you will continue to volunteer at the hospital and in others places as well. Summer is also a great time to think about serving others outside.

The last measure of church health, though, is the one that THRIVES in summer, at least for our family. Healthy churches make new disciples. They constantly are connecting with people who don't know God's love for them and aren't connected to God's community, the church. Summer is made for connecting with these people and connecting them to church people we know will love them. Summer is about making new friends at the park and pool. It's about inviting church-people and not-yet-church-people to cookouts and bonfires. Summer is for inviting our not-yet-church friends to join us at VBS. Summers are made for connecting people.

As we go into summer, I want you to be thinking about how you do each one of four measurements of participation in the church. Set some goals for how you can grow in faith this summer. Perhaps you won't be at worship as consistently, but maybe you will be connecting your church friends and not-yet-church friends more. Maybe you will be intentional about inviting some kids to VBS, or you will be having church with us each night that week. Maybe you will volunteer to serve others in our community. Whatever it is, don't take a vacation from being the church. Instead lean into the season and becoming a well-rounded disciple.

UMW Update

What a great time we had at our Mother Daughter Dinner. I want to thank everyone who attended. We had a wonderful group of women joining us for a delicious dinner prepared and served by Joyce Wells of Wishing Wells Cakes and Catering. We had about 90 in attendance. Following dinner we were entertained by Bob Sears playing the guitar and singing. Bob shared with us his own faith story and we were inspired by his music and his spirit. Thank you to all who attended to share in our celebration. A special thanks to Pam and Donnie VanDyke and to Billie Stockum who helped me get everything ready and cleaned up. I am so blessed to have such good friends. I hope that all women were celebrated on Mother's Day. We are all so blessed in so many ways.

Something to think about: Have you ever stopped and wondered what God has done in your life that you aren't even aware of? Maybe He healed you before you even knew you were sick. Perhaps He saved you from a fatal car crash that never happened. I have felt like God has protected me more times than I can count, so I can only imagine how many times He has rescued me when I was unaware that I was even in danger. Take a moment to thank God for protecting you. He is ALWAYS watching over you and He's there for you even when you don't realize it. What an awesome God we serve! Have you been blessed by God? Thank Him!

Our next UMW meeting will fall during Vacation Bible School week on June 13. With daylight lasting into evening we thought we would have our meeting at 7:00pm. Please come and enjoy the fellowship.

Thank you for all your support.

Nancy Hesse

Mission's Jail House Ministry

As many of you know, Candy has started a ministry at the jail and visits with the women every Thursday with a Bible lesson and discussion.

Recently a new Recovery House in Aurora is opening for women with 8 beds. Faith Promise is sponsoring a woman from Candy's Jail Ministry to live in the house with $100. It will be set up as a grant/scholarship with it being paid back by the woman over time.

In addition, four large fleece blankets have been donated to the Recovery house made by teacher friends.

Christian Education

Have you used Kroger ClickList? I resisted for a long time, because I'm pretty particular about my grocery shopping. Even after a lot of my friends at work told me about the benefits, I was still a little reluctant. Until one day when I felt there was no other way I would get my grocery shopping done in the short amount of time I had, I gave it a try. It was a little nerve wracking at first, as anything that is new can be. But it was also time-saving. And convenient. And I learned that other people can pick out a ripe piece of fruit on my behalf!

All of this brings me to say that we are trying a few new things at Vacation Bible School this year. Instead of our usual five nights, it will be four. The first three nights are the traditional VBS offerings and the last night is our fun night for families. Also new this year is a class for those kids going into 6th-8th grade.

So maybe you are ready to try something new, too? We are always looking for volunteers to serve the kids as group leaders or assistants. Please let me know if you are willing to step outside your comfort zone. We would love to have you!

-Amy Delp

Creature Connection VBS will be held on June 9-12, from 6:00-8:30 p.m. Invite all the kids you know to join us!
